

1.

Please state the identity, address, telephone number and place of employment of all persons, you know of, who have knowledge of any facts or circumstances upon which you base your complaint or answer, as the case may be.

2.

Please state the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents or other tangible things, you know of, which might constitute or contain facts or circumstances upon which you base your complaint or answer, as the case may be, or which might be reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of such facts or circumstances.

3.

Please state generally, the nature, circumstances of, and contents of any admissions or adverse statements you have, or are aware of, given by party serving these interrogatories, or any of its agents.

4.

Please identify each person whom you expect to call as an expert witness at trial, and state the subject matter on which each expert is expected to testify, and state the substance of the facts and opinions to which each expert is expected to testify and a summary for the grounds for each opinion.

5.

Prior to answering these interrogatories have all responding parties, and each responding party's attorney, made a due and diligent search of responding party's notes, records, papers, files and all pertinent materials, and a due and diligent inquiry of all responding party's agents, with a view of eliciting all information available in this action?

6.

Please identify all transfers of property made by Alpha Protective Services, Inc. ("Debtor" or "Alpha") to or for the benefit of Respondent, between April 2, 2010 and April 12, 2012. Please identify what type of property was transferred (cash or tangible goods, such as returns), how the transfer was accomplished (whether by check or by wire transfer), for what the transfer was consideration (e.g., what antecedent debt, if any), and the date that the transfer was accomplished. Please also identify all documents you have related to the transfer.

7.

Please identify all transfers of property made by Alpha Protective Services, Inc. ("Debtor" or "Alpha") to or for the benefit of Respondent, between April 12, 2012 and January 12, 2013. Please identify what type of property was transferred (cash or tangible goods, such as returns), how the transfer was accomplished (whether by check or by wire transfer), and the date that the transfer was accomplished. Please also identify all documents you have related to the transfer. If you contend that the transfer was court authorized, identify the order authorizing same.

8.

If you claim that the Debtor was solvent at the time of any of the transfers identified in response to Paragraphs 6 and 7, please state every fact or matter of evidence which you are aware would support that proposition, including in your identification any documents you have related to the solvency of the Debtor. Include in your response how much you contend the Debtor was solvent.

9.

If you have taken the position as you provided that there was a contemporaneous exchange for new value, within the definitions of 11 U.S.C. § 547(a)(1) and 11 U.S.C. § 547(c)(1), please identify the exchange, stating what the exchange was, how it was made, its value, and identifying any documents associated therewith.

10.

To the extent that you contend that any of the transfers identified in response to Interrogatories No. 6 and 7 are made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the Debtor, as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 547(c)(2)(A) please identify every fact which you are aware that supports that proposition. Include in this response a payment history showing dates of prior invoices and payments, through and including April 2, 2010, so that a payment history may be established.

11.

To the extent that you contend that transfers identified in response to Interrogatories No. 6 and 7 were made according to ordinary business terms, as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 547(c)(2)(B), standard, as identified within the industry, please identify all facts or matters of evidence you have which would support that proposition, including any other payment histories that you contend are probative, any learned treaties or publications which you contend are probative, and any internal documents you have which you contend are probative.

12.

If you contend that after each of the transfers identified in response to Interrogatory Nos. 5 and 6, you gave new value to or for the benefit of the Debtor, as defined by 11 U.S.C. § 547(a)(2), not secured by and otherwise unavoidable security interest, and on account of which you value the Debtor did not make an otherwise unavoidable transfer to or for the benefit of such creditor, as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 547(c)(4), please identify such new value, stating the amount, the type of new value, how the transaction of the new value was accomplished, and any documents that support that such new value was given.

13.

If the Respondent contends it is or was the holder of a valid, attached and perfected security interest, in property of the Debtor, to secure the antecedent debt repaid as identified in response to Interrogatory Nos. 5 and 6, please identify the collateral, state the value of the collateral and method of evaluation, identify all documents by which the security interest was created, attached and perfected, and to the extent that there is a relationship between the payment and the collateral, state the nature of the relationship.

14.

Please identify the type of business in which you are engaged, including the industry, form of existence (corporate or limited liability company, etc.), the date of formation (or if an individual or sole proprietor when business began), the principals, if the shareholders of the company is not publicly traded, and all business locations, specifically identifying the business location with which the Debtor did business.

15.

Please identify all relationships between the Respondent, the Debtor and any companies related to the Debtor, the Respondent and any shareholders or employees of the Debtor, and any relationships which might serve to create an insider status for the Respondent with respect to the Debtor. Please provide in your response a history of the relationship, when and how the relationship began.

This 1st day of August, 2014.
